FIR against IPS officer for ‘illegally detaining’ Nigerian man in 2023

Express News Service
New Delhi, February 6

THREE YEARS after a Nigerian man was allegedly illegally detained from Delhi’s Dabri, an FIR has been filed against 2011-batch IPS Officer Shankar Choudhary, who was posted with the Mizoram Police, in connection with the case.

As per the FIR filed by the Delhi Police Vigilance Unit on Thursday, following an enquiry, Choudhary allegedly misused his official authority and illegally detained the Nigerian national without following legal procedure.

It also claimed he carried out an inter-state police operation without informing authorities or seeking prior approval. The Indian Express reached out to Choudhary via text messages seeking comment. A response is awaited.

As per the vigilance FIR, a PCR call was received from a woman in Nigeria, on November 29, 2023, claiming that her brother had been arrested by the Mizoram Police. She alleged that Rs 35 lakh was taken for his release, with a further demand of Rs 20 lakh being made.

The woman allegedly named Choudhary as the officer involved in the detention and extortion. On July 22 last year, the Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) had asked the Delhi Police to look into the allegations against Choudhary. The Delhi Police Commissioner then appointed an enquiry officer to ascertain the facts.

As per the FIR, on November 26, 2023, Choudhary and Delhi Police staff entered the residence of the Nigerian man, Harrison, at 3.34 am. The team left at 5.40 am, taking a locker and two bags.

The seized items were not recorded in police records of either Delhi or Mizoram Police, the FIR claimed. It also said CCTV footage showed Harrison was taken from his residence by Choudhary’s team. He was then kept at Mizoram House from November 26 to 29. There was no arrest memo, court production, or legal order during this period, the FIR claimed.

As per the findings of the enquiry, Choudhary stayed in Delhi after his approved leave ended on November 20, 2023. There was no written or formal communication between Mizoram Police and Delhi Police allowing these raids.

No official diary entry, written order, or wireless message exists in Delhi Police records to authorise these actions, the FIR claimed.

Apart from this, the FIR stated, two head constables, though officially posted elsewhere, acted as Choudhary’s driver and assistant without written orders. Their involvement was beyond their official duties and amounted to serious misconduct for which departmental enquiry would be conducted, it said.

‘HUMILIATING’, SAYS HC ON NOIDA STUDENT

HC sets aside student’s punishment with placard

Bhupendra Pandey
Lucknow, February 6

SETTING ASIDE a direction to a student to stand outside a university in Noida for 30 minutes over 30 days, with a message on a placard that he will never misbehave with any girl, the Allahabad High Court said it was unjustified and uncalled for.

“It is not only humiliating but would cast a permanent scar on the character of the appellant,” said the division bench led by Chief Justice Arun Bhansali, also comprising Justice Kshitij Shailendra, in its order Wednesday while setting aside the direction by a single bench of the HC.

The appellant, who is pursuing a BSc in Medical Laboratory Technology (BSc MLT) degree at Noida International University, had been rusticated on March 30 last year for allegedly misbehaving with women students of another university. The varsity had claimed to have video recordings to justify its rustication decision.

The student had challenged his rustication through a petition in the HC. On October 29 last year, a bench of Justice Saurabh Shyam Shamshery had issued an order setting aside the rustication — with conditions and directions.

The single bench had observed, “On the basis of material produced by the...counsel for respondent-university, the conduct of the petitioner appears to be not bona fide...even his attendance is less than 50% in earlier academic years.”

It had further stated, “...due to his misconduct, he has been rusticated from Noida International University. The nature of misconduct is serious, i.e., misbehaving with girl students of [another] university and bunk [bunking] classes along with...

fellow students. There are some video recordings also.”

The order had stated that since the student’s father was a poor farmer, the rustication order was set aside “while exercising powers under Article 226 of the Constitution”.

The student was directed to issue a written apology for his act to the university, file a notarised affidavit before the university that he will attend 95% of remaining classes and not leave the premises during class hours, among other orders.

Police were also directed to deploy an “anti-romeo mobile squad... at the time of opening and closing of the gate” of the two universities.

The student then filed an appeal against this order, which was heard by the division bench on February 4. His counsel submitted that the direction was not only humiliating for the student, but would affect his career.

Ease of travel in focus, govt partners with Bharat Taxi

Express News Service
New Delhi, February 6

TO OFFER transparent app-based cab services to people, the Delhi government has joined hands with Bharat Taxi, the Chief Minister’s Office (CMO) said on Friday. The Bharat Taxi app was launched formally by Union Home and Cooperation Minister Amit Shah on February 5.

Officials said that the Delhi Tourism and Transportation Development Corporation (DTTDC) also signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Sahkar Taxi Cooperative Limited (STCL), the co-operative arm of Bharat Taxi, to roll out technology-enabled taxi services across the city.

The MoU was signed at the Delhi Secretariat in the presence of Chief Minister Rekha Gupta, Tourism Minister Kapil Mishra and other senior officials. Under the MoU, DTTDC will act as the tourism and branding partner, with a focus on upskilling drivers as the first point of contact for tourists. Drivers will be trained in soft skills and sensitized to Delhi’s culture, history, and heritage, positioning them as long-term brand ambassadors of Delhi Tourism, officials said.

Under this, curated taxi-based travel products will be introduced for tourists.
